Letter No. T.A.S. B. 358 dated 22nd October 1924, stating that orders Nos 0 718/or 96-23-9 of 23rd Sept 1924 and 0 729/or 18-24-2 of 25-9-24 sanctioning items of expenditure in G.R.S. and Kumara park, may be communicated through the G. M. Branch. in accordance with this office order No. 0 528 of 5th Sept 1924.

1) order No 718/or 96-23-9 of 23rd September 1924, is regarding the expenditure incurred in getting the two push carts of G.R.S. repaired, and 0 729/or 18-24-2 of 25-9-1924 refers to the expenditure incurred for providing loose cretonne covers to the upholstered furniture in Kumara park.

2) In the letter No 0 528 of the 5th September 1924 to the Secretariat it is stated that the questions of sanctions of items of expenditure in the Secretariat, held under objections by the audit office, will be dealt with in the G. M. Branch.

3) Expenditure incurred for repairing the two push carts of G.R.S. and providing cretonne covers to furniture of Kumara park, were not items held under objection by the audit office. Since sanction was necessary, before payment to the parties, the G.O. Nos 718 and 729, were issued from the Office Branch.
